

to the Superior Court, or Court of Equity of Nash county, in which a jury shall be required; which tax shall be collected by the clerks of said courts, and accounted for to the county trustee, as other taxes on law proceedings are required to be collected and accounted for.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all jurors (talismen excepted) who shall serve in any of the Superior or County Courts of said county, shall be entitled to receive for every days service the sum of eighty cents, and the sum of two cents for every mile travelling to and from said court: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as to allow jurors to draw pay until the February term of the County Court of said county which shall happen in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven.

V. And be it further enacted, That all jurors as aforesaid, who shall serve after that time, shall be allowed pay as aforesaid, and shall prove their attendance before the clerk of the court, in which they may so serve, who shall grant them a certificate for the same, for which the clerk shall be allowed ten cents, to be included in the certificate, which, on being presented to the county trustee, shall be paid by him, as other county claims, out of the monies appropriated and set apart for that purpose.

CHAPTER CXVI.

An act authorising Joseph Welsh, of the county of Haywood, to erect two gates on the public road, called the "Smoky Mountain Turnpike Road;" and Josiah Holly, of Bertie county, to erect and keep up a gate on his land across the road leading to Colerain Landing.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, it shall and may be lawful for Joseph Welsh, of the county of Haywood, to erect and keep up two gates on the public road passing through his plantation, called the Smoky Mountain Turnpike Road, one at each end of his plantation, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions as have been or hereafter may be established for erecting and keeping any gate or gates across any of the public highways of this State; any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. Be it further enacted, That Josiah Holly, of the county of Bertie, be, and he is hereby authorised to erect and keep up a gate on his own land, across the road leading to Colerain Landing, from the fifteenth of March until the tenth of May in each year.

CHAPTER CXVII.

An act to authorise the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Carteret and Jones counties to appoint special justices of the peace, and making compensation to such justices for certain services.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the justices of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Carteret and Jones counties, at the term of appointment of sheriffs in said counties, a majority of said justices being present, and concurring in the appointment, to select and nominate such and so many of the justices of their counties as they think proper, to act in said counties as special justices for one year; and the said justices so elected, shall be entitled to demand and receive the following fees for their services, that is to say: For every affidavit not on the trial of a case, ten cents; for every warrant or attachment, ten cents; for every subpoena or